While speakers and large group outings are not available or discouraged, we have multiple options for exploring the Red Bluff area and will provide printouts of these, including the Cone and Kimball Plaza, the Wm. B. Ide State Historic Park, reported to be the home of Wm. Ide, who was the first and only President of the Republic of California, the Kelly-Griggs (Victorian) Museum, and the Ishi Wilderness area, with Native American trails ranging from easy to difficult, as well as Gaumer's Mining and Mineral Museum, within walking distance of the RV Park (also a Jewelry store, if you're interested!)

If all this doesn't strike your fancy, we will share with you some geologic history of the area and you can go fossil hunting for small seashells formerly on the bottom of the ocean that covered this area.
